What blew us away was a show stopping meatball sub, packed with a quartet of spicy orbs & sealed inside a garlic & herb-dusted hoagie with just a dab of tangy pasta sauce and mozzarella.

Also good was the Caribbean Twist pizza, a thin crusted beauty, with a creamy honey-mustard base (instead of tomato sauce), it is covered in ham, bacon and mozzarella. After it comes out of the oven, the kitchen adds a spicy pepperoncini relish and finishes the pie with a pretty crosshatch of ranch dressing.

The combination of flavors, unexpected and delicious, makes this pizza a risk worth taking - INDIANAPOLIS MONTHLY
